TP When the news of the Harper's Ferry in surrection reached the West, the organs of the Republicans-the Journal among them-eu deavored to break the force it had against the mischievous agitation of the negro question, by trying to show that Brown was crazy! Instead of disearding Brown, and disclaiming all such ntensified abolition doctrines as lead to such results, they were excused, and sympathy was ranged from $79 to $97; old ones $120. extended to the perpetrators. In noticing these offerings of sympathy to the insurrectionists at Harper's Ferry, and efforts to prove them saue, on Monday the 24th inst, we used . following language:

The republicans will succeed in showing that old Brown is mad when they proje that the whole party is rabbid—not before,

The Journal seized upon this sentence, disnnected from the context, and in nearly every number of that paper since has said we have ered this fall from about three acres of land in large pasture on the S. D. & C. Road, about charged that the "whole Republican party was eight miles above the city, and getting hedged as rabbid as Brown himselft" The misrepress the received $2.33 in between the track and a cattle guard, the sentation of sur language and meaning will be apparent to all.
